Schyler Chris' mother passed away. Services pending.

Knight Essay contest sent. Certificates on hand.

Frank: When taking pics at our events, please pay attention to the entire scene and what's behind it. This will give us greater opportunity to publish our events.

James: Genealogy and applications. Skyler has 2 and Peter has a couple. Things looking good to be appointed Chaplain General Stephen: discussion providing old certificates to TxSAR archives and eventual digitizing.

Frank: Three color guardsmen at Laredo George Washington Days. Upcoming events is the TxDAR and some Vets events. We get points credit for various contributions to the VA. The Pioneer Ball is coming on April 18. Let Jay Lewellan know about your attendance to it.

Tejada Middle School will have their History Faire on 28 Mar. Can use attendance on that. It is an outstanding event and kids are very interested and ask lots of questions.

Paul: ROTC/JROTC dates and times are rolling in. ALWAYS need voluntary presenters but doing well with that at the moment none the less. It is an opportunity for newly inducted as well as those members unable to attend our scheduled meetings.

Frank: Provided a Report on Hotels for the 2017 TXS SAR Annual Conference in San Antonio. Hotels being considered include: Menger (Downtown) , Hilton Airport (N. Loop 410), Embassy Suites (IH-10 West) and Drury Inns and Suites North (Loop 1604 East). He will present the matter at the TXS SAR State Planning Committee Meeting next week (which is held during the 2015 TXS SAR Annual Conference in Houston). Selection of the Hotel will be made by Chairman of the State Planning Committee (Tom Jackson) together with the in-coming TXS SAR State President (Larry Stevens).

Bob: Membership. Need for members to call delinquent members and get them to renew dues. Gala speakers...Ted Cruz may be possible. Henry Garcia will also contact Texas House Speaker Joe Straus.

OAS: Ancestry.com ceasing comped memberships to Wounded Warriors and Families.

Adjourned 1300 hours.
